

MALCOLM GROSS Rose Gardens

WEDDING CEREMONY USAGE RULES

Congratulations on your upcoming wedding!

The City of Allentown wish you all the best in your new lives together. We are so pleased that you have requested information on using the Malcolm Gross Rose Gardens to celebrate your marriage ceremony.

Below, please find the usage details for wedding ceremonies held at the Rose Gardens.

There are no reservations for the Rose Gardens. All weddings are on a first-come basis. If you arrive and there is another party being married, please wait for them to conclude their ceremony before beginning yours.

Please respect the Gardens. To protect the integrity of the Rose Gardens, no more than 25 people should be in attendance at your ceremony.

Chairs should not be set up unless absolutely necessary for the handicapped or elderly.

No amplified music is allowed. If you would like to bring a small stereo for a wedding march you may do so, but the volume should not be turned up louder than absolutely necessary. Bands, DJ's, and car stereos are not allowed.

Alcohol is strictly prohibited.

We hope that you will have an enjoyable experience! For any questions, please contact us between 8:00am - 4:00pm, Monday through Friday at 610.437.7550.

allentownparksandrec.com

